WORK FLOW

A photograph of a modern, cozy bedroom. In the foreground, a bed is covered with a thick, beige cable-knit blanket and several pillows, including a large white one and a smaller beige one with tassels. To the left of the bed is a large, leafy green plant. On the wall above the bed are three hexagonal wooden shelves, each holding small potted plants. To the right of the bed is a small white round side table with a snake plant in a woven basket. A long, trailing ivy plant hangs from a wooden crate on the wall to the right. Another snake plant is visible in the bottom right corner.
